

INT-0: the co-orbital architecture is forced by kinematics, not chosen for guidance convenience

Only $\sin(\theta/2)$ of a crossing shot is useful

Crossing shots are catastrophic at any angle

